Curriculum vitae

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Claire Chauvin

WORK EXPERIENCE

October 1999–Present

Researcher

Anses (French Agency for food, environmental and occupational health and safety) (France)
Pharmacoepidemiology project leader
(Design and management of descriptive studies, monitoring systems and analytical studies of antibiotic use in farms. Implementation of epidemiological studies (analytical and experimental ones) for the relationship between antibiotic resistance and antibiotic use.)
Epidemiologist in veterinary public health (zoonoses and animal health)

1998–1999

Veterinarian

Agence nationale de la sélection porcine (France)
Responsible of health and welfare topics for the breeding pigs organisations (regulation diffusion and implementation, coordination of studies and working groups on health and welfare issues)

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

2003–2009

PhD
Rennes University (France)
Pharmacoepidemiological approach of antimicrobial usage in poultry production
- Research projects on pharmaco-epidemiology;
- Antimicrobials, Antibiotic resistance, Animal health and Veterinary Public health;
- Design and management of descriptive and analytic studies;
- Statistical and epidemiological analysis and modelling;

2000–2001

postgraduate degree in medicine and pharmacy
University Paris V, Grenoble, Chambéry (France)
Methodologies in research about environment and health: epidemiology, risk analysis, toxicology.
- Training in research on epidemiology and public health;
- Biostatistics;
- Risk analysis, Evaluation in public health;
- Pharmaco-epidemiology ; Toxicology

1994–1998

Doctorate in veterinary medicine
Medicine Faculty of Toulouse, National Veterinary school of Toulouse. (France)
Veterinary science

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Expertise
Pharmacoepidemiology
Antimicrobials usages in veterinary medicine
Relationship between antimicrobial usage and resistance
Veterinary epidemiology and veterinary public health
Poultry / Pig / Rabbit production
Publications

Curriculum vitae

Claire Chauvin

Epidemiology and Infection. 137, 1086-1098.

Projects

Memberships

Other Relevant Information