

Tuesday 8 December 2015

Rare gastrointestinal and liver diseases initiative

Tuesday, 8 December 2015, 9:30 – 12:30, meeting room 2E

Chair: Nicholas Croft (PEDDCReN)

Co-chair: Irmgard Eichler (Enpr-EMA)

Topic	Speaker	Time
Welcome and registration		09:00
What do we mean by rare gastrointestinal and liver diseases?	Nicholas Croft	9.30
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pseudobstruction 	Nikhil Thapar
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Congenital enteropathies 	TBC
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Liver diseases 	Ulrich Baumann
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Inflammatory bowel disease (IBD) complications 	Lissy de Ridder
Why are rare diseases of interest to industry	TBC	10.15
Rare diseases initiatives in the UK & EU	Julian Thomas	10.30
How the EMA/EU support treatment development in rare diseases	Laura Fregonese	10.45
Coffee		11.00
An EU wide proposal to support future research - Developing a prospective registry	Nicholas Croft	11.15
Discussion of the future possibilities	All	11.30
Action points and next steps	All	12.20
End of the morning session.		12.30