Responsible use of antibiotics protects animals and people

Europe is on the right track to fight antibiotic resistance...

Sales of antibiotics for veterinary use are declining

...but more needs to be done

Since 2010 voluntary participation increased from 9 to 31 countries