PLANNING YOUR VISIT

TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

Amsterdam Schiphol Airport

Amsterdam Schiphol Airport is the fourth largest European airport in terms of passenger numbers. The airport is easily accessible by car and public transport. The railway station is directly underneath the passenger terminal and offers 24/7 transportation to all major cities in the Netherlands including Amsterdam, Rotterdam, Utrecht and The Hague.

Public transport

The rail system in the Netherlands is fast, efficient and comfortable. Trains run frequently and connect most of the country. Within the Amsterdam metropolitan area, options for travel – other than trains – include trams, metros and buses. Throughout the Netherlands, the public transport can be paid with a system of check-in and out with a payment card or an OV-chipkaart (top-up travel card that can be re-used) or with your debit or credit card.

Taxis

Different taxi companies are available in Amsterdam. Official taxis are easily recognisable by the 'taxi' sign on the car roof and blue number plates. There are permanent taxi stops near popular squares, attractions and stations. Apps such as Uber and Bolt are available in major Dutch cities, but do not yet provide national coverage.

ACCESS TO THE AGENCY

Upon arrival at the European Medicines Agency building, please report to the main reception on the ground floor. The receptionist will verify your ID card, passport or driving licence before providing you with a temporary or permanent access badge, as well as an EMA corporate lanyard.

If you already hold the Agency permanent badge, you can access the building directly via the speed gates. In case you forget your permanent access badge, please report to the main reception and you will be provided with a temporary access badge.

Access badges are the property of the EMA and must be returned at the end of the visit (temporary badge) or engagement with the Agency committees (permanent badge).

If your access badge is missing or lost, please report it to the Agency Security Reception Desk at the reception lobby, call +31 (0) 88 781 8888 or send an email to security@ema.europa.eu immediately.

Your access badge and the EMA corporate lanyard provided must be worn throughout your visit at the EMA facility. You need it to either enter or exit the building via the speed-gates in the lobby area by the reception, as well as for access to conference rooms and other areas such as Delegates Lounge, Sky Lounge or Restaurant.

Please note, that all conference room doors are automatic and have motion sensors. The doors open and close automatically. Keep away from the door sensors after swiping your badge on the specific card reader to open the door. Inside the rooms there are electrical push button opening the door automatically.

NB: Please never use manual force to open or close the doors, as this may result in door malfunction requiring maintenance.

In line with Agency security standard and access control rules, you are not able to access office space in floors 4 to 18, unless you are invited and accompanied by an EMA staff member. Please also note that access and permanence in the EMA Building is allowed from Monday to Friday, from 07:30 to 22:00.

Special procedures might be implemented for large public events or depending on the threat level at the time. Such procedures might include pre-registration, identification verification, belongings screening through x-ray machines, walk-through metal detector check, non-contact body search and others implemented according with ad-hoc security risk assessment.

You can bring in small (cabin trolley type) suitcase. These should be stored in the closets next to the meeting rooms and not taken inside. Luggage shall not be left unattended, and must always be stored in the appropriate closets or kept by your proximity.

NB: Any weapons (blade or fire) or replicas, explosives and CBRN (Chemical, biological, radiological, nuclear) substances are not allowed in the building, as well liquid or gas containers bigger than 75cl, unless reported and cleared by the security team, upon a reasonable justification.

Protective security

Since the Agency implements its Security Management System, and has several security controls in place, Security Guarding Service is present at the Agency Facility twenty-four hours, seven days a week (24/7) for assistance.

Security personnel may address any individual should they observe non-adherence to security rules or to deliver security advice or instruction. If you are addressed by security personnel with regards to security procedures, please comply with such advice, instructions or directions delivered.

Please do not leave any personal items and sensitive information unattended during your visit, as well as remember to collect your belongings from conference and meeting rooms at the end of each day.

If you have lost or found any item, please report it to the Security Desk located on the ground floor Reception Lobby. Security Team will record the enquiry and inform you whether it was found or not.

If you notice any suspicious activity or object, or need security assistance, please contact 24/7 Security Desk at the ground floor lobby, call +31 (0) 88 781 8888 or send an email to security@ema.europa.eu immediately.

Recording and broadcasting

The Agency records or broadcasts many of its meetings, including virtual meetings, as part of its commitment to the principle of transparency as enshrined in the Treaty on European Union. By attending these meetings you are consenting to any such recordings or broadcasts.

Video-surveillance system

The Agency operates a closed-circuit television (CCTV) system. Recorded footage is used solely for security and safety purposes and stored for 28 days in accordance with the EMA CCTV policy. The processing of personal data at EMA is subject to Regulation (EC) No 2018/1725. EMA Meetings Support Services team can access the live viewing to mark the presence of external delegates during the meeting organised in EMA meeting rooms. For more information, consult: www.ema.europa.eu/en/about-us/legal/general-privacy-statement

Accessibility

The building is fully accessible. There is full step-free access to all floors via the elevators.

There are male and female toilets, including toilets for persons with reduced mobility, on each floor.

A pick-up and drop-off point for vehicles is available in front of the building. Visitors can use this drop-off point when they come to the EMA building via taxi or private car.

Delegates with impairments are welcome to contact EMA staff in advance to allow time to make the necessary arrangements (e.g. installation of hearing loop, specific health and safety measures, parking, etc.).

Fire and emergency / First aid / Health and safety

● Fire and emergency

In case of fire, the whole building will be evacuated simultaneously.

Please pay attention to the fire alarm message: every floor will hear the same alarm - a slow 'whoop siren', followed by a voice message in English and Dutch, asking you to leave the building:

"Attention please, you must leave the building immediately by the designated emergency exits. Do not use the elevators".

"Attentie, u moet het gebouw verlaten via de aangegeven nooduitgangen. Maak geen gebruik van de liften".

Please note that each conference room has a specific evacuation plan which, in the larger rooms, requires delegates seated in different sections to evacuate via different room exits and, possibly, different fire staircases. This is part of the evacuation plan for the first and second floors. This and other health and safety information will be provided at the start of each meeting via a room-specific slideshow. Please pay careful attention to the information provided. If a fire alarm happens during a meeting, please follow the instructions from EMA staff, who will remind you of which exit to use. Evacuation plans are mounted on the wall in each conference room and on all floors.

Suitcases and other bulky items must not be taken into the staircases in case of an evacuation.

Any persons with a mobility-impairment who are planning to attend a meeting at the Agency should notify their Agency contact in advance so that arrangements can be made to assist them in case of fire or other emergency.

- First Aid: call 7777 from an EMA phone (e.g. in meeting rooms) or +31 (0)88 781 7777 for all First Aid matters, including access to the two First Aid / Nursing Rooms (located on the 1st floor of the EMA building).
- Emergency number: call 112 (for ambulance only, both from land lines and mobile phones). Please note that security will call the police or fire brigade in case of fire.
