An Agency on the move

EMA/IFAH-Europe Info Day 2013

Presented by: David Mackay
Head of Veterinary Medicines and Product Data Management

An agency of the European Union

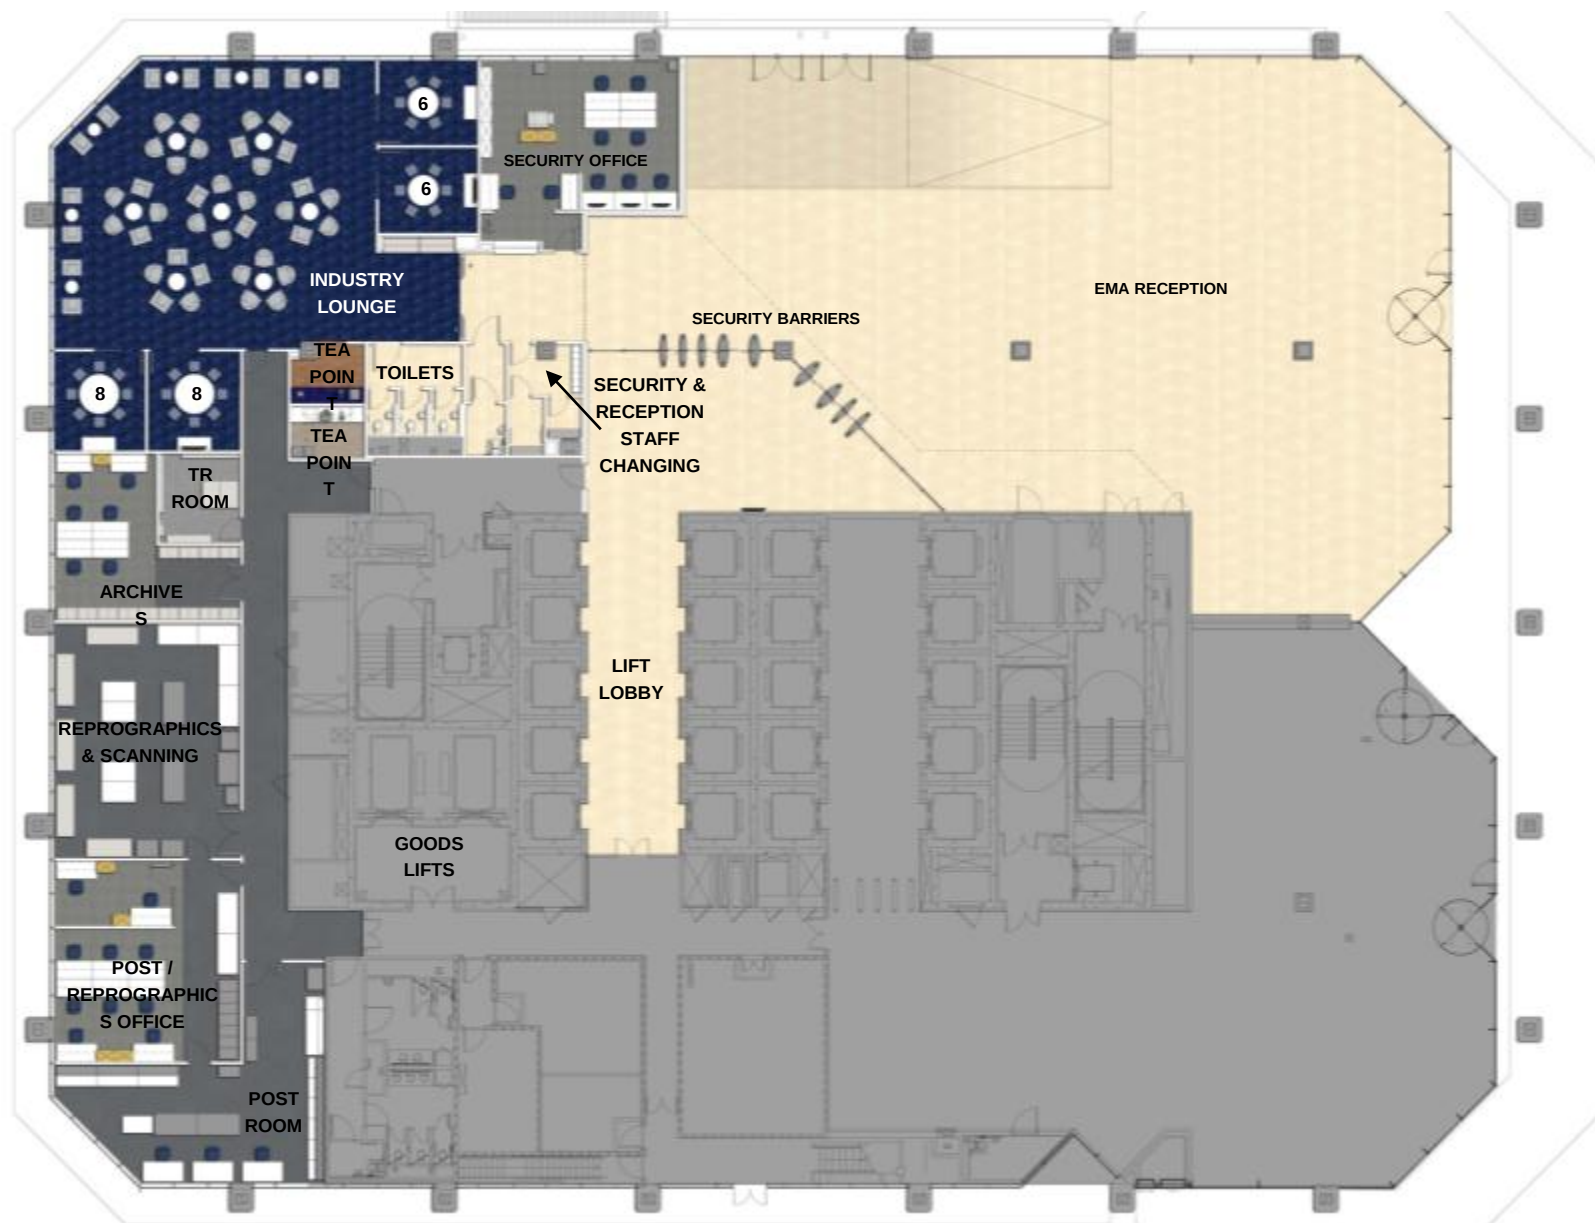

An Agency on the move...

- Update on plans for EMA to move to a new building
- Outline the 'Review and Reconnect' initiative within the Agency to improve efficiency and effectiveness through reorganisation
- Question and answer

An Agency on the move

- The Agency will move to new premises at 30 Churchill Place as from July 2014
- Service to stakeholders will be uninterrupted and the move should be 'seamless' with all meetings and functions taking place at 30 CP as from September 2014
- We will take the opportunity to move further towards paperless operation
- Facilities for industry and other external organisation will be provided in a modern, dedicated environment

Review and Reconnect Project

- Review and Reconnect
 - A fundamental review of the way in which the EMA delivers its activities
 - Focus on processes, stakeholder requirements, efficiency and effectiveness
 - Starting with a limited number of key processes and then expanding to cover all main processes of the Agency
 - Marketing Authorisation Process, Pharmacovigilance and clinical trials (human)
 - Veterinary processes to be considered in second phase
 - Aiming to deliver more with fixed resources
 - Analysis phase almost complete; implementation during 2013
