

EUROPEAN MEDICINES AGENCY
SCIENCE MEDICINES HEALTH

Concluding remarks

Opportunities for stakeholder collaboration

Peter Arlett,
Head of Data Analytics and Methods Task Force (EMA),
Co-chair of Big data steering group

Looking forward to 2021: transformation begins to deliver

1. DARWIN

Project delivery starts | pilot of the European Health Data Space

2. Data Quality

Workshop and consultation on a data quality framework + data standards strategy

3. Discoverability

Consultation on meta-data for real world data

4. Skills

Training curricula published

5. Processes and transparency

Publish review of RWE submissions + workshop + publish learnings from RWE analytics pilot

6. Analytics capability

AI workshop | + Patient level data pilot starts

7. Expert advice

RWE and advanced analytics expert advice available

8. Ethics and Security

Publish Q&A on secondary use of health care data and data protection

9. International workshop on a international RWE collaboration

10. Stakeholder forum

2nd stakeholder forum

11. Veterinary

Veterinary stakeholder data workshop

Our Forum today.....

Looking forward

"By delivering the vision of a regulatory system able to integrate Big Data into its assessment and decision making, we can support the development of innovated medicines, deliver life-saving treatments to patients more quickly and optimise the safe and effective use of medicines on the market."

Big Data Task Force final report December 2019