

What are FDA CVM 's main expectations from Big Data Strategy for the Veterinary Domain?

- Using existing data to its full capacity (i.e., CVM's adverse event database, FDA'S GSRS system)
- Leveraging existing data sources for the advancement of veterinary public health (i.e., Banfield Pet Hospitals)

How committed is FDA/CVM to the development and implementation of a Big Data Strategy for the Veterinary Domain?

- Fully committed
- Continually improving the quality of data received
- Working with regulated industry to receive and transparently review big data in FDA decision making process
- Advancing the methods used for big data analytics
- Collaborating with other stakeholders on the best practices in using veterinary data for big data analytics
- Forging partnerships with other stakeholders to advance veterinary data science