

The European Agency for the Evaluation of Medicinal Products
Directorate

London, 23 January 2001
Doc. Ref: EMEA/D/1568/01

Press release

EMA announces new CPMP chairman and vice-chairman

The EMEA Committee for Proprietary Medicinal Products (CPMP) today elected Dr Daniel Brasseur as chairman for a three-year mandate from 2001 to 2003. He replaces Professor Jean-Michel Alexandre who completed two mandates as chairman from 1995 to 2000.

The Committee also elected Dr Eric Abadie as vice-chairman for the same period.

This is the first plenary meeting of the new CPMP membership. An extraordinary meeting of the CPMP took place on 11-12 January 2001 and a press release is available on the EMEA web site, together with a full list of CPMP members.

- ENDS -

Contacts for further information:

Noël Wathion

Tel. (44-20) 74 18 85 92

Fax (44-20) 74 18 86 68

Martin Harvey

Tel. (44-20) 74 18 84 27

Fax (44-20) 74 18 84 16

NOTES

1. Daniel Brasseur, Belgian nationality, is a physician specialising in paediatrics. He is currently Head of Medical Assessors at the Pharmaceutical Inspectorate of the Belgian Ministry of Public Health. He is also Head of the Clinical Unit for Nutrition and Pharmacodynamics at the Queen Fabiola Children's University Hospital, Brussels and Professor of nutrition and related diseases at the Free University of Brussels.
2. Eric Abadie, French nationality, is a physician specialised in internal medicine, endocrinology, diabetology and cardiology. He is currently Director of Pharmacotherapeutic Evaluation at the Agence française de sécurité sanitaire des produits de santé.
3. This press release, together with other information on the activities of the EMEA, can be found on the Agency's new web site <http://www.emea.eu.int>