

PERSONAL INFORMATION Marie Pauline J. Evers

WORK EXPERIENCE

- August 2008- Present manager patient advocacy
dutch federation of cancer patient organisations (Netherlands)
active as patient advocate in the field of medicines and diagnostics (research and development, access, reimbursement), research in general
- February 2007-August 2008 project manager
European NeuroMuscular Centre ENMC (Netherlands)
Project manager of patient related work packages in TREAT-NMD, a FP7 research program in the area of neuromuscular diseases
- June 2003-February 2007 policy officer
Dutch Genetic Alliance VSOP (Netherlands)
various patient advocacy activities in the area of rare diseases for the umbrella patient organisation in The Netherlands
- June 1988-June 2003 manager regulatory affairs
pharmaceutical industry (Netherlands)
Active in European registration procedures for Chiron Europe (1988-1997) and Genzyme Europe (1997-2003)
- March 1984-June 1988 PhD student
Free University Amsterdam (Netherlands)
PhD thesis in medicines

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- September 1976-August 1983 Masters degree biology
University Groningen (Netherlands)
- February 1984-June 1988 PhD
free university amsterdam (Netherlands)

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Expertise COMP member (patient representative) june 2006 - now
Patient advocacy in the area of rare diseases (mainly metabolic and neuromuscular) and cancer especially related to medicines, research, patient registries, clinical trials, reimbursement.
I am particular interested in the interface between registration and health technology assessment / reimbursement. I am involved as patient advocate in the work of ZINL (the Dutch reimbursement agency).

Publications

Projects

Memberships

Other Relevant Information