

Curriculum Vitae

Personal information Naomi Beard

Work experience

- January 2024 - present: IncreaseNET WP5 Project Lead: Project lead for a large collaborative European project, funded by the European Commission under the EU4Health Initiative, (IncreaseNET) aiming to improve capability and capacity of medical assessors via training development. Main activities: Project management; collaboration with ~30 member contributing EU member states; creation of training models and processes; training course development.
- July 2022-2024: Medical Officer (Health Products Regulatory Authority, Ireland): Undertook clinical assessment of human medicines and clinical trials to ensure the continued protection of public health.
- July 2021 - July 2022: Clinical Lecturer/Registrar and Research Fellow in General Medicine (Trinity College Dublin, Ireland): Undertook clinical teaching in general medicine for undergraduate medical students. Involved in lecture and tutorial design, curriculum and exam development. Conducted research investigating pre-stroke anticoagulation effectiveness in subjects admitted to Irish hospitals with atrial fibrillation associated stroke.
- July 2019 - July 2021: Senior House Officer in General Medicine (Irish-based hospitals): Completed the Basic Specialty Training Scheme in General Medicine. Member of the Royal College of Physicians.
- July 2018 - July 2019: Intern (Saint James's Hospital, Dublin): Completed a range of medical and surgical specialties, including oncological gynaecology, colorectal surgery, rheumatology and acute medicine.

Education and training

- April - September 2024: Professional Diploma in Digital Learning (Digital Learning Institute, Ireland): Achieved competence in knowledge and application of pedagogical theory, instructional design, digital learning development and evaluation.
- November 2023 - January 2024: Certified Project Management Diploma (Institute of Project Management, Dublin, Ireland): Achieved competence in knowledge and application of project management principles and approaches. Demonstrated ability to adapt these to a range of project settings.
- September 2021 - August 2023: MSc in Health Professions Education (University of Limerick, Ireland): Successful completion of a taught masters with a research component (dissertation) regarding effective education and training of healthcare professionals.
- July 2019 - July 2021: Completion of a series of professional examinations in general medicine (the Royal College of Physician (RCPI) examinations) and achievement of membership to the Royal College of Physicians.
- September 2019 - April 2020: Certificate in Management for Nurses and Healthcare Professionals (Waterford Institute of Technology, Ireland): Achieved competence in basic theory and practical application of management and leadership skills.
- September 2013 - June 2018: M.B, B.Ch., B.A.O Medicine (Trinity College Dublin): Successful completion of an undergraduate medical degree.

Additional information

Publications

Projects

Memberships

Other Relevant Information