

Curriculum Vitae

Personal information Alice Beck

Work experience

Policy Officer, Health Action International (The Netherlands), 2022-Present

- Assisting the Senior Policy Advisor on research and advocacy relating to pharmaceutical policy, access to medicines, and other related issues at the national, European, and global levels.
- Facilitating collaboration with external partners CSOs.
- Supporting the implementation of communication strategies and activities (including events) for the European projects' dossier.
- Monitoring the implementation of projects and assisting in reporting.

Junior Communications Manager, Academic Medical Education (The Netherlands), 2021-2022

- Developing project-specific communication plans and overseeing their implementation
- Creating and advising on communication outputs

Education and training

LLM-MAS International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights, Geneva Academy (Switzerland), September 2017-July 2018

Courses included: Public International Law, Human Rights Law, International Humanitarian Law, International Criminal Law, and other ad hoc themes.

LLM Public International Law, University of Utrecht (The Netherlands), September 2016-July 2017

Courses included: Public International Law and Human Rights Law

BA International Relations, University of Geneva (Switzerland), September 2013 - June 2016

Courses included: Political Science, History, International Law, Economics

Additional information

Publications

Projects

Memberships

Other Relevant Information