

Curriculum Vitae

Personal information Stine Kjørup Boserup

Work experience

Abacus Medicine A/S

10 November 2017 – 12 December 2024

Regulatory-, Product Development & Medical Specialist

(Full-time: September 2023 – 12 December 2024)

- Project Manager for the department of Regulatory Affairs and Product Development within parallel import of pharmaceuticals, ensuring compliance and efficiency.
- Driving business optimization processes with focus on Product Development department and Regulatory Affairs.
- Managed stakeholder relationships including contract renewals.
- Provided scientific insights to cross-functional teams and contributed to the review and improvement of medical documentations in internal systems and SOPs.
- Managed medical inquiries.

Product Development Coordinator

(Full-Time: March 2021 – August 2023)

- Reviewed pharmaceutical products for parallel import and distribution to ensure alignment with relevant regulatory standards.
- Integrated pharmaceutical products into Abacus internal systems.
- Led optimization and development of internal systems to comply with local pharmaceutical regulations.
- Managed departmental documentation, including SOP handling.
- Oversaw financial operations within department, including invoicing and payments management.

Student Assistant, Product development

(Part-time: November 2017 – February 2021)

Education and training

University of Copenhagen

Master of Science – MS, Clinical Nutrition
September 2017 – March 2021

Bachelor of Applied Science – BASc, Food Science
September 2013 – May 2017

PhD course in Good Clinical Practice (GCP) – monitoring of research project with patients (with certification)
November 2018 – November 2018

Additional information

Publications

Projects

Memberships

Other Relevant Information