

Curriculum Vitae

Personal information Efstratios Chatzicharalampous

Work experience

1. Public servant, Head of the Department of Developing Programs, Health Education and Prevention, Directorate of Primary Health Care of the Greek Ministry of Health (2012 until now)
2. Ex-Social Inspector for Welfare Institutions and Services (2002-2012)

Education and training

1. Sociologist (Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences) (1983-1987)
2. M.D. of Mental Health (Department of Nursing, University of Athens) (1996-2000)
3. M.D. Social Administration (National Public Administration School) (1992-1995)
4. M.D. Administration of Health Services (National School of Public Health) (1989-1990)

Additional information

Publications

Projects

1. As president of Hellenic Retina Society I wrote reports about: a) Demographic profile of partially sighted and blind persons in Greece (2021), b) Pandemic of covid-19 and problems related to everyday life of person with vision disabilities (2022).
2. Also, we organize and coordinate a pilot project to develop skills for olfaction training for persons with vision disabilities, other disabilities, mental disorders, elderly etc. (period 2021-2025). And we publish a book about the work we done, the methodology and procedure to develop olfaction labs for students and disabled and elderly people.

Memberships

- President of Hellenic Retina Society (1989 till now)
- President of Hellenic Federation of Associations for Rare Diseases (2017 till now)
- Vice President of Greek Society of Sociologists
- Member of the board of Greek Federation of Blindness

Other Relevant Information I am a patient representative