

Curriculum Vitae

Personal information Terry McElvaney

Work experience

- Department of Agriculture, Food and the Marine. 2019 to present day. Official Veterinary Inspector for Competent Authority in Ireland.
Roles include: carrying out Medicated feed inspections on mills/on farm mixers.
Management and co-ordination of national residue control plan and investigations into non compliant/positive residue results.
- Coastway Veterinary Group - clinical director in small animal veterinary hospital in Brighton, United Kingdom where I was also the Named Veterinary Surgeon for the University of Sussex. September 2014 to 2019.
- In 2011-2012 I completed a preregistration year as a clinical pharmacist in East Surrey Hospital, Surrey, United Kingdom. Antimicrobial stewardship and AMR were key to this role.
- Cliffe Veterinary Group, Lewes-mixed practice which included being prescriber of medicated feed for a number of poultry production units (2007-2014)
- Weston Creek Veterinary Hospital, Canberra (November -April 2007) mixed animal practice
- Campsie Vet Centre, Omagh (permanent position), Northern Ireland for over two years in mixed Practice (July 2004 –August 2006).

Education and training

Masters of Pharmacy MPHARM (Honours) University of Brighton June 2007-2011

Bachelor of Veterinary Medicine Degree (Honours), UCD Dublin June 1999-2004

Additional information

Publications

Projects

Memberships

Other Relevant Information