

Curriculum Vitae

Personal information Emilio José Torres Bermúdez

Work experience

January 2022-Present
Pharmaceutical inspector
Good Clinical Practice and PhV Inspection Area. Pharmaceutical Inspection and Enforcement Department.
The Spanish Agency of Medicines and Medical Devices (Spain)
GCP and GVP inspections

Education and training

Degree in Biochemistry
September 2011 - June 2015
University of Murcia
Spain

Master in Molecular Biology and Biotechnology
September 2015 - September 2016
University of Murcia
Spain

Degree in Pharmacy
September 2015 - September 2018
University of Murcia
Spain

PhD student in Molecular Biology and Biotechnology. Biotechnological applications of enzymes and nutraceutical and cosmeceutical biomolecules
September 2018 - Present
University of Murcia
Spain

Additional information

Publications

Projects

Memberships

Other Relevant Information

Virtual EMA-GCP IWG training on improving the reporting of GCP inspection findings and their impact as part of the EMA Integrated Inspection Report
20TH June 2022 (7h)

2022 Pharmacovigilance Inspectors Working Group
Training Course

30TH September 2022 (13.25h)

COPTrain 2022 (10TH – 11TH OCTOBER 2022)

A GCP INSPECTOR TRAINING COURSE TOPICS COVERED:

A New Inspector's Journey And How To Embrace New Inspectors Data Management

Statistical Analysis And CSR

Computerised Systems, Including Draft E-Guideline

Complex Trials And Adaptive Designs

COPTrain 2022, THE BE SESSION (12TH OCTOBER 2022)

A BE INSPECTOR FORUM TOPICS COVERED:

ICH M10: Differences From The EMA Guideline, Impact On Inspections

Potential Risks For Data Integrity Associated With Computerised Systems Used In GxP Environment

Recent Findings With DABERS And Similar Tools

Remote Data Review