

Curriculum Vitae

Personal information Ruth Wan

Work experience

May 2021 - present; Position: Quality assessor

- Danish Medicines Agency, Denmark
- Chemical and pharmaceutical quality assessor of human and veterinary medicines; investigational medicinal products; radiopharmaceuticals.

Jan 2018 - Jun 2020; Position: Consultant Pharmacist - Critical Care, Theatres & Anaesthesia; Pharmacy R&D

- Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust, London, UK
- Team leader; Medicines management, medication risk & safety, and critical care clinical research. Honorary lecturer King's College London Medical School.

Feb 2012 - Dec 2017; Position Expert Pharmacist - Critical Care, Theatres & Anaesthesia; Patient & Drug Safety

- Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust, London, UK
- Team leader; Medicines management and improvement across critical care & anaesthesia (theatres). Honorary lecturer King's College London Medical School.

Nov 2007 - Feb 2012; Senior Pharmacist - Medication Safety & Governance

- Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust, London, UK
- Medicines management systems with focus on medication safety in use.

May 2006 - Nov 2007; Cardiac Intensive Care Pharmacist

- St George's University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, London, UK
- Deputy leader to pharmacy operations across cardiac services, medicines optimisation.

Jan 2006 - May 2006; Medicines Information Pharmacist

- Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, Oxford, UK
- Medicines information service for the hospital, healthcare professionals and patients in the Oxford region.

Jan 2004 - Aug 2005; Senior Pharmacist; Emergency Medicine

- Austin Health, Heidelberg, VIC, Australia
- Medicines optimisation, risk and governance management for the Emergency Department (Poisons unit for region Victoria)

Education and training

Sept 2014 - Sept 2015; Masters in Clinical Research.

- MRes with merit; King's College London, University of London, UK
- Clinical research in translational medicine

Jan - Apr 2008; Independent Prescriber

- Professional qualification as an independent prescriber; King's College London, University of London, UK

Sept 1999 - Aug 2002; Post Graduate Diploma in Clinical Pharmacy

- PGDipClinPharm; University of Wales, Cardiff, UK
- Specialisms covered include: internal medicine, general surgery, gastroenterology, palliative care, oncology, haematology, renal medicine, renal transplant, cardiology, intensive care, paediatrics, women's health, infectious diseases, GUM (including HIV).

Sept 1998 - Aug 1999; Pre-registration Pharmacy training; Peterborough Hospitals NHS Trust.

- Registered UK Pharmacist of the general pharmaceutical council
- Hospital-based practice to fulfil requirements for registration as a practicing pharmacist.

Sept 1995 - July 1998; Bachelor of Pharmacy

- BPharm 2:1 with honours; University of Nottingham, UK
- Pharmacy degree includes: pharmaceuticals, pharmacognasy, microbiology, pharmacology, physiology, pharmacy practice, pharmacy law.

Additional information

Publications

Projects

Memberships

Registered UK pharmacist of the General Pharmaceutical Council.

Other Relevant Information