

Curriculum Vitae

Personal information Stine Wieland

Work experience

October 2024 - present: Pharmacovigilance officer at Danish Medicines Agency. Denmark. Main activities include pharmacovigilance, benefit/risk management evaluation and risk management

August 2023 - September 2024: Research assistant at Rigshospitalet, Copenhagen University Hospital. Denmark. Main activities included research regarding migraine during pregnancy and the use of antimigraine medication, including datamangement and statistical analysis.

February 2016 - September 2020: Midwife at Hospital of Northern Sealand (Nordsjællands Hospital). Main activities included assisting births, antenatal consultations, antenatal classes.

Education and training

September 2020 - June 2023: Master degree of Science in Health Science. University of Copenhagen. Denmark. The education was research-based and covered a broad spectrum of knowledge that integrated disciplines from bio-medicines, clinical and healthcare subjects, social and behavioural science, quantitative and qualitative methods with a clinical focus.

August 2012 - January 2016: Bachelor degree in Midwifery. University College Copenhagen. Denmark. Theoretical and practical skills in assisting normal and complicated pregnancies, births as well as the post partum period.

Additional information

Publications

Projects

Memberships

Other Relevant Information