

Curriculum Vitae

Personal information Emma Witteveen

Work experience

---

Scientific employee at RIVM, The Netherlands

- Working in the department: environmental risks of substances and products

- Main activities: working on the environmental assessment of the authorization of pharmaceuticals, establishing a regulatory framework for sustainable pharmaceuticals, participate in the Dutch chain approach for pharmaceuticals in the environment and the Dutch knowledge network on pharmaceutical residues.

01-08-2023 - present

Implementation consultant at Studytube, The Netherlands,

- Implementing the online learning system

01-09-2021 - 01 - 07-2023

Education and training

---

Master Toxicology and Environmental Health at Utrecht University

- Minor: Management Profile: Fundamentals of Business Economics

- 01-09-2019 - 01-07-2021

Bachelor Biology at Utrecht University

01-09-2015 - 01-06-2019

Additional information

---

Publications

Projects

12 month research internship at Institute for Risk Assessment Sciences

- Utrecht University

- Faculty of veterinary medicine, department of Toxicology

- Development of novel 3D methodologies for assessing adipocyte differentiation

2 month research internship at Trimbos-Institute

- Program Drugs

- The effects of cocaine and levamisole on the immune system

2 month research internship at Institute for Risk Assessment Sciences

- Utrecht University

- Faculty of veterinary medicine, department of Toxicology

- Micro- and nanoplastics; A human health crisis? A study on the hazards and risks of micro- and nanoplastic exposure on human health

Memberships

Other Relevant Information