

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Ninna Gullberg

WORK EXPERIENCE

March 1992–February 2013

Consultant/Senior Staff Consultant

Astrid Lindgren Children's Hospital at the Karolinska University Hospital, Stockholm (Sweden)

Responsibility for all aspects of general Paediatric Intensive Care (and Paediatric Anaesthesia until 2008). On leave to work in Canada and Australia as indicated.

July 2000–July 2001

Clinical fellowship Critical Care

Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto (Canada)

Cardiac and General Paediatric Critical Care.

July 2004–May 2005

Staff consultant

Women's and Children's Hospital, Adelaide (Australia)

Paediatric Intensive Care and Paediatric Emergency Transport

June 2006–May 2007

Senior Staff Consultant

Women's and Children's Hospital, Adelaide (Australia)

Paediatric Intensive Care and Paediatric Emergency Transport

February 2013–Present

Clinical Assessor, Project Manager

Medical Products Agency (Sweden)

Assessments of medical products, studies etc. from clinical perspective. Project manager for expert meetings and development of national guidelines for medicines for children.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

August 1975–September 1982

University Degree in Medicine

The Karolinska Institute A Medical University, Stockholm, (Sweden)

September 1982–November
1984Licensed to practice medicine

Danderyd University Hospital, Stockholm (Sweden)

Internship

November 1984–January 1989

Certified Specialist in Anaesthesia and Intensive Care

SÖS University Hospital and St Görans Hospital, Stockholm (Sweden)

–June 2008

PhD in Medicine

The Karolinska Institute (Sweden)

Paediatric Intensive Care in Sweden

I Mechanical ventilation and central haemodynamics,

II Outcome of paediatric intensive care with special reference to respiratory failure

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Expertise Paediatric Intensive Care, Paediatric Anaesthesia and Pain treatment
Anaesthesia and Intensive Care
Respiratory physiology and central hemodynamics,
Cardio-respiratory morbidity in neonates and infants.
incl. RSV infections

Publications

Projects Project manager for the development of national guidelines published by the MPA for the treatment of children for:
Procedural pain
RSV infections
Sleep disturbances
Use of antipsychotic
Chronic pain
Intravenous fluid therapy
Medical imaging contrast (ongoing)

MembershipsOther Relevant Information