

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Herbert Lenicker

WORK EXPERIENCE

December 1961–August 1977

Resident Medical Officer

Medical and Health Department (Malta)

ENT, Obstetrics and Gynaecology, General Surgery, Internal Medicine, Psychiatry, Microbiology, Paediatrics, Dermatology at St Luke's Hospital followed by clinical and administrative duties in Infectious diseases at The Isolation Hospital.

August 1977–August 1980

Initially Resident Medical Officer for 6 months then Medical Director

The Williamstown Hospital, 3016 (Australia)

General clinical duties in medical and surgical departments as RMO followed by administrative duties during which W/town Hospital became accredited while I was Medical Director. Chairman Drugs and Therapeutics Committee

January 1964–July 1967

Demonstrator in Anatomy

Royal University of Malta (Malta)

Later from 1980 to 1997 Lecturer in Paediatrics. Currently Examiner in Paediatrics

August 1980–August 1987

Resident Medical Officer, St Luke's Hospital

Dept of Health (Malta)

General Paediatrics.

Member Drugs and Therapeutic Committee

August 1987–August 1997

Consultant Paediatrician St Luke's Hospital

Department of Health (Malta)

General Paediatrics including Paediatric Infectious Disease, Respiratory Diseases, Cardiology, Neurological Diseases and Paediatric Oncology requiring Tertiary Care. Obtained Merit Award.

Member Drugs and Therapeutics Committee

Chairman Hospital Infection Control Committee

July 2004–Present

Medical Assessor, Alternate Member PDCO

The Medicines Authority (Malta)

Assessment of safety and efficacy of medicines in respect of MRPs and representation and participation at monthly plenaries of the PDCO at the EMA in assessment of PIP and Waiver procedures

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

October 1954–July 1961

M.D.

Royal University of Malta (Malta)

Basic medical sciences followed by Microbiology, Pathology, Public Health, Pharmacology and Therapeutics, Forensic Medicine, Internal Medicine, General Surgery, Psychiatry, Dermatology and Paediatrics

April 1966–

Diploma in Child Health (London)

RCS and RCP Conjoint Board London (United Kingdom)

General Paediatrics

January 1970–May 1970

Postgraduate Course in Internal Medicine

Postgraduate Medical School Edinburgh University (United Kingdom)

Internal Medicine

July 1987–

Doctor of Science (Medicine)

Belgrade University (Serbia)

Thesis submitted: A Study of Asthma in a Cohort of 5291 Maltese School Children

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Expertise

General paediatrics

Infectious diseases

Childhood asthma

Publications

Accidental poisoning in children in Malta: A 10 year review

The St Luke's Hospital gazette 1970 Vol V No 2 130-134

P Vassallo Agius and HM Lenicker

A Study of Asthma in a Cohort of 5291 Maltese School Children

Belgrade University 1987, DSc (Medicine) Thesis by HM Lenicker

Ann. of Tropical Medicine and Parasitology 1986 Vol 80 No 3 317-323

MJ Pippard, D Moir, DJ Weatherall and HM Lenicker Volume 20, Number 5, September 1997, pp. 723-724(2)

Infantile generalized GM1 gangliosidosis: High incidence in the Maltese Islands

J. Inherited Metabolic diseases 1997 20 : 723-724

HM Lenicker, P Vassallo Agius, EP Young, and S. Attard Montaldo

Allergic conditions in 5-8 year old Maltese school children: Prevalence, severity and associated risk factors [ISAAC]

Pediatr Allergy Immunol 2002: 13 98-104

S Montfort, H Agius Muscat, S Caruana and HM Lenicker

Projects

Memberships

Founder Member Maltese Paediatric Association

Member Medical Association of Malta

Honorary President German Maltese Medical Society

Fellow College of Chest Physicians (ACCP)

Other Relevant Information

Chairman of the Malta National Verification Committee for Measles and Rubella Elimination