

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Tim Leest

WORK EXPERIENCE

February 2008–January 2009

Clinical Dossier Manager

FAMHP (Belgium)

Follow up of clinical dossiers on an administrative level.

January 2009–Present

Clinical Assessor - Safety and Efficacy of human medicines

FAMHP (Belgium)

Clinical evaluation of new submissions, variations, etc.

Scientific and ad hoc advice.

Parliamentary interpellations.

September 2017–Present

Delegate member to COMP

FAMHP (Belgium)

January 2019–Present

Member of the Management Committee

King Baudouin Foundation - Fund Rare Diseases and Orphan Medicines (Belgium)

Follow-up of, advising on, overseeing and initiating of national initiatives aimed at improving access to the best possible treatments and diagnoses for patients with rare diseases in Belgium, in cooperation with all stake-holders involved.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

September 2001–September
2005Master in Biology

Catholic University of Leuven (Belgium)

Master thesis in molecular neuroplasticity.

September 2005–September
2006Master of Sciences in Bioinformatics

Catholic University of Leuven (Belgium)

September 2005–June 2014

Japanese CEFR B1 Treshold 3

CLT Leuven (Belgium)

Japanese Language

August 2012–August 2012

Japanese Language Proficiency N4

The Japan Foundation and Japanese Educational Exchanges and Services (Japan)

June 2012–July 2012

Cambridge ESOL Level 5 Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (CELTA) (QCF)

University of Cambridge (United Kingdom)

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Expertise

Ophtalmologic products

Botulinum toxin

Oncology
ATMP
Orphan diseases

PublicationsProjects*Memberships

Standing member of the Management Committee of the Fund Rare Diseases and Orphan Medicines of the King Baudouin Foundation.

Other Relevant Information