

Curriculum Vitae

Personal information Zsófia BALLA

Work experience

Antibiotic data collection officer

- start date: 07/2022, till present days

- National Food Chain Safety Office, Hungary

- Main activities: responsible for the development of the data collection platform for collection antibiotics sales and use data. Coordination of the preparation of the national IT systems for the ASU (including the connection between UPD and the hungarian national database, the data collection system used for antibiotics sales and use, developing an appropriate reporting interface for querying the data collected).

Food chain supervisor

- start date: 02/2018

- end date: 06/2022

- National Food Chain Safety Office, Hungary

- Main activities: coordination of the preparation of the national food chain sampling plan. Development of a system used for the preparation of the sampling plan.

Education and training

- start date (02/2016)

- end date (01/2018)

- degree or qualification obtained during the education or trainin: Food Safety and Quality Engineer MSc

- institution where the education or training was followed: University of Szeged

- country of the institution: Hungary

- subjects/skills covered by the education or training (optional for Management Board members): the training focused on food safety and quality issues in food production

- start date (09/2012)

- end date (01/2016)

- degree or qualification obtained during the education or trainin: Food Engineer BSc

- institution where the education or training was followed: University of Szeged

- country of the institution: Hungary

- subjects/skills covered by the education or training (optional for Management Board members): the training covered the production processes of various foodstuffs (e.g. of animal origin) in the chosen specialisation, with all the tasks involved, from the production of raw materials to laboratory tests

Additional information

Publications

Projects

Memberships

Other Relevant Information