

Curriculum Vitae

Personal information Linda Marchioro

Work experience

09.2024 - present: external assessor for AGES/BASG, Austria

08.2020 - 07.2024: statistical researcher and assessor at Paul-Ehrlich-Institut, Germany, involved in EMA assessment procedures and guideline drafting

08.2021 - 03.2023: consultant for University Hospital of LMU Munich, Germany

05.2017 - 02.2020: associated researcher at Statistical Consulting Unit (StaBLab), LMU Munich, Germany

07.2016 - 12.2019: PhD candidate and associated researcher at University Hospital of LMU Munich, Germany

Education and training

10.2016 - 08.2021: PhD (Dr. rer. hum. biol.), University Hospital of LMU Munich, Germany

04.2013 - 11.2015: M.Sc. Mathematics in Bioscience, TU Munich, Germany

10.2011 - 02.2012: visiting student at Universität Regensburg, Germany

09.2009 - 09.2012: B.Sc. Mathematics, University of Trento, Italy

Additional information

Publications

See https://orcid.org/0000_0003_4176_0252

Projects

2023-2024: contribution to EMA guideline drafting in the areas of companion diagnostics and plasma master files.

09.2022 - 07.2024: BMG-funded KIMERBA project, with the aim of studying applications of artificial intelligence in regulatory work.
Role in the project: involved in tasks related to clinical trial application and Scientific Advice; support to tasks related to pharmacovigilance.

08.2020 - 07.2024: IMI-funded COMBINE project, with the aim of addressing capability building questions to advance preclinical and clinical development of new medicines to prevent or treat antimicrobial resistant (AMR) infections.
Role in the project: co-lead of Work Package 4 (Improving the design and analysis of clinical trials).

Memberships

Other Relevant Information