

Curriculum Vitae

Personal information Wolfgang Sipos

Work experience

---

1. Employer: Federal government of Lower Austria
  - Start date: 021999
  - End date: 111999
  - Position: Veterinary Officer
  - Activities: Animal Disease Monitoring and Control
  - Country: Austria
2. Employer: University of Veterinary Medicine Vienna
  - Start date: 121999
  - End date:
  - Position: Associate Professor
  - Activities: Research, Clinics, Teaching
  - Country: Austria
3. Employer: Veterinary Practice Schwertfegen
  - Start date: 072014
  - End date:
  - Position: Practitioner
  - Activities: Practical Veterinary Work
  - Country: Austria

Education and training

---

1. Subject:
  - Start date: 062007
  - End date:
  - Qualification: Diplomate of the European College of Porcine Health Management
  - Organisation: ECVS
  - Country: Europe

Additional information

---

Publications

More than 100 peer-reviewed publications in the fields of large animal (mainly porcine) infectiology, vaccinology, and immunology, as well as on the use of pigs (and rodents) in biomedical research (resuscitation, osteoporosis, allergology, dermatology, ophthalmology) and molecular genetic studies (phylogeny of aspects of innate immunity and dermatology). Several chapters in scientific and text books, monography "Das Schwein in der biomedizinischen Forschung" (the pig in biomedical research), Springer-Spektrum, Berlin.

Projects

Memberships

2005 – 2007 Founding President of the Austrian Society of Friends of Pig Medicine

2007 Vice president of the Austrian Veterinary Society

2010 – 2016 Member of the editorial board of "Veterinary Medicine Vienna" (Wiener Tierärztliche Monatsschrift)

2012 – date Member of the committee for biosecurity at the Center for Pathophysiology and Allergy Research at the Medical University Vienna

Other Relevant Information