

About us

- ESPR leading paediatric research society in Europe.
- founded in 1958, registered in Geneva, CH.
- Works through six sections covering the key research topics in neonatology and beyond.
- has a board of officers for training, education and data management in neonatology.
- publishes its own peer-reviewed journal, Pediatric Research, Springer-Nature group (SPR) our council: structure > individuals

President
CC Roehr
Oxford, UK

Vice-President
PS Hüppi
Geneva, CH

Treasurer
S Wellmann
Basel, CH

EBN Chair
M Vento
Madrid, ES

Train. & Edu.
T Szczapa
Poznan, PL

Dataman.
D Haumont
Brussels, BE

Brain
P Gressens
Paris, FR

Circulation
W De Boode
Nijmegen, NL

Epidemiology
TB Hendriksen
Aarhus, DK

Nutrition
A Lappilonne
Paris, FR

Pharmacology
S Simons
Rotterdam, NL

Pulmonology
A van Kaam
Amsterdam, NL

Mission

- to boost scientific excellence and encourage collaboration between different specialised fields of paediatrics;
- to maintain paediatrics as a unified, scientifically-orientated discipline;
- to foster education, promote research and set standards;
- to bring about ever faster, positive change for patients and their families.

Sophie, 600g at birth

Premises for optimal care and outcomes

Research

- basic
- clinical
- translational

Advanced diagnostics

Parents

Training & education

Some key activities

- annual large-scale research grant programmes for ESPR members.
- mentoring programmes bringing together senior researchers and aspiring young professionals.
- online training and education, NOTE project, with world-wide participation.
- the co-organisation of renowned annual international congresses such as jENS or EAPS.